

Mary Jo Filippini, D.D.S.

Cosmetic &
General Dentistry

1974-1978	Marquette University Bachelor of Science Degree Major: Dental Hygiene Minor: Speech Pathology
1977	Sigma Phi Alpha National Dental Hygiene Honor Society
1978	Outstanding Woman of the Year Award
1981-1985	Attended Northwestern University Dental School
1984	Member of Northwestern University Dental School Long-range Planning Committee
1982-1984	Member of Chicago Dental Society – Academic Chapter 1982-Delegate of Chicago Dental Society – Academic Chapter 1983-Secretary of Chicago Dental Society – Academic Chapter 1984-Vice-President of Chicago Dental Society – Academic Chapter
1983-1984	Student Teacher – Oral Anatomy
1985	Odontographic Society of Chicago Research and Education Foundation Award
1985	Omicron Kappa Upsilon – Alpha Center The National Dental Honor Society
1985	Completion of D.D.S. Degree at Northwestern University Dental School
1985-Present	Member of Chicago Dental Society, American Dental Association, Illinois State Dental Association
1985-Present	Private Practice – General and Cosmetic Dentistry
1988 -2001	Member of Northwestern University Dental School Alumni Board of Directors; Secretary, Vice President and President Elect
1988-1999	Member of Chicago Hearing Society Woman's Board of Directors
1990-2000	Second Practice – General and Cosmetic Dentistry Affiliated with Plastic Surgeons at The Centre for Aesthetic and Reconstructive Surgery
1999-2004	Member of the American Foundation for the Blind Woman's Board of Directors
2004-2006	Member of the Guild for the Blind Woman's Board of Directors
2005-2009	Member of Piven Theater Group Board of Directors
2006-2008	Member of Literacy of Chicago Woman's Board of Directors
2009	Member of the Foundation for the Hearing and Speech Rehabilitation Woman's Board of Directors